City Vision Statement

Northfield is an open, safe, and welcoming community, recognized for its world-class colleges and historic riverfront downtown, and is dedicated to sustainably enhancing and preserving its vibrant culture, celebrated arts, strong economy, and an excellent quality of life where all can thrive.

City Mission Statement

The City of Northfield works for the common good of our residents and businesses and the improvement of our community by providing excellent, innovative municipal services that carry out the City's vision for a high quality of life for all.

Keys to Success

MN Open Meeting Law

- All Board and Commission Meetings are Open to the Public
- Provide advance notice of meetings (requires 3 days posted notice including date, time, place and purpose)
- A meeting is a gathering of a quorum or more of a public body governed by the OML where the public body discusses, decides or receives information on issues relating to official business
- Serial Meetings – exchanges between individual members of a public body on a topic close in time, that collectively involve a quorum (ex: emails)
- Penalties can include reasonable costs, disbursements and attorney fees up to $13,000; $300 individual fines; forfeit office (three or more separate, intentional violations)

MN Data Practices Act

- Regulates collection, creation, storage, maintenance, dissemination, and access to public data
- Presumes government data are public unless federal law, state law or temporary classification says otherwise
- Generally, your board and commission materials are public as well as email correspondence related to business

Rules of Business

- Council adopted "Northfield City Council Rules of Business & Meeting Rules"
- Applies to Boards and Commissions
 - Appendices:
 - A. Rules of Order for Councils
 - B. Rules of Decorum for Councils

Appendix A: Rules of Order

- Modified Roberts Rules (see pages 1-7)
- Obtain floor; be recognized by the Chair
- "I MOVE that ..."; another member, "Second."
- Chair Repeats Motion and asks for Debate
- Debate pros and cons; make secondary motions
- Chair repeats motion and takes Vote
- Chair announces the Result of the Vote.

Appendix B: Rules of Decorum

- Be courteous and recognize differing points of view
- Encourage honest, respectful discussion and debate
- Do not use dismissive body language (i.e. eye rolling, gestures, turning away from the person speaking)
- Speak only when recognized by the Chair
- Don't interrupt others while they are speaking
- Silence your cell phone

3 of Covey's Habits

- Think WIN-WIN by looking for mutual benefit
- Seek first to Understand, then to be Understood
- Synergize by valuing other points of view and reaching a solution that is greater than the sum of the parts

Have Fun and Encourage Humor!

Getting up and drawing a Venn diagram is a great way to appear smart. I don't realize if your Venn diagram is really inaccurate. In fact, the more inaccurate, the better. Even before you're put that on paper, draw your colleagues will know. Righting about what the details should be and how they're related about the. At this point, just your stick back to your chair and go back to playing Candy Crush.
