

ORDINANCE NO. 1090

AN ORDINANCE AMENDING NORTHFIELD CITY CODE, CHAPTER 2, RELATED TO CITY BOARDS AND COMMISSIONS

THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF NORTHFIELD DOES ORDAIN THAT (new material is underlined; deleted material is lined out; sections which are not proposed to be amended are omitted; sections which are only proposed to be re-numbered are only set forth below as to their number and title):

SECTION 1. Northfield Code, Chapter 2 – Administration, Article I. – In General, Division 5. – Public Art Program, Section 2-51. – Administration of public art program, is hereby amended as follows:

Sec. 2-51. - Administration of public art program.

(a) Responsibilities.

- (1) Subject to the provisions of this division and applicable law and charter relating to expenditures for the arts, the city staff shall be responsible for administering the city's public art ~~program with the assistance of the public art commission~~, as outlined in this division and other related city council adopted policies.
- (2) City staff, ~~in consultation with the public art commission~~, shall prepare an annual fiscal year report to the city council presented no later than March annually, which shall include at least the following:
 - a. A description of the artwork completed, obtained or commenced in the previous year;
 - b. A description of the city capital improvement projects designated for inclusion of public art by the city council in the upcoming year and of the funding source; and
 - c. A budget for the income and expenditures for such city capital improvement projects.
- (3) City staff, ~~in consultation with the public art commission~~, shall review artwork proposed for permanent or long-term placement on city property to determine an appropriate location for the placement of the artwork. Artwork to be placed in a museum or gallery is excepted from this process. To make the determination, City staff, ~~in consultation with the public art commission~~, may examine the artwork itself or a design or model of the same.
- (4) Prior to moving or removing any artwork placed in, on or about city property pursuant to the public art program, city staff shall first consult with any relevant parties, as determined by staff ~~submit such proposed change to the public art commission input prior to completing.~~
- (5) During the design phase of artwork, city staff shall determine the maintenance requirements of every artwork, recommend to the responsible department the type, frequency and extent of maintenance required to preserve the quality and value of every artwork, and inspect such maintenance work for the guidance of the city departments concerned. It is the responsibility of the site manager or appropriate department head to provide for the maintenance of artwork in their routine site maintenance program.

SECTION 2. Northfield Code, Chapter 2 – Administration, Article I. – In General, Division 5. – Public Art Program, Section 2-52. – Administration of funds, Subsection (d) Disbursement procedures, is hereby amended as follows:

- (d) Disbursement procedures. Eligible funds and other amounts deposited into the public art account shall be budgeted and expended in the same manner as other city revenues and used for public art projects commissioned pursuant to this division. Eligible funds and other amounts deposited into the public art account shall be disbursed in accordance with procedures established by the city's finance director for public art projects commissioned pursuant to this division. Each disbursement from such public art account or from other appropriations for public art shall be documented by the public art commission city staff liaison and presented at monthly public art commission meetings, and authorized in accordance with applicable law and accounting principles governing expenditures from the city's budget. Disbursement of funds from the public art account to pay for public art acquired pursuant to this section shall be made in accordance with procedures established by the city's finance director.
