Noteworthy

On January 5, 2025, Officer Thad Monroe responded to medical call for an unresponsive person. Officer Monroe started CPR. With the work of the patient's fiancée, who is a nurse, Officer Monroe, NAFRS and Northfield EMS, the patient regained a pulse!

Noteworthy – Mar 7, 2025

At 6:30 AM, a male was found unconscious and possibly breathing. When officers arrived, no pulse was found. CRP was started and no shock advised. With the work of Officer Christian Kelling, Officer Alex Klobe and EMS, the male regained a pulse and sustained his own heartbeat. Ultimately, he was airlifted to the metro after a quick visit at NH+C.
