2 - 12.01 Art in Public Places Policy 11-25 DRAFT CLEAN
1 - Resolution 12

Draper said this will be the last meeting of the ACC due to budget cuts within the City. The policy for Art in Public Places was revised due to the elimination of the Arts and Culture Commission and was passed by City Council. The policy reflects the partnership with the Northfield Arts Guild to manage public art via an agreement to designate them as a Local Arts Agency (LAA).

The construction fencing facing Division Street, around the Archer House site, will have art to temporarily conceal the site. Rocky Casillas will create large concept of books by local authors to put up in the site. It will be installed in early December.

Draper gave a summary of work completed in her five years on the commission. She thanked the commissioners for their time and work to make Northfield an arts community.

BOARD MEMBER AND COMMISSIONER REPORTS

Commission members gave their comments on the elimination of the ACC. Johnson shared how community members can support the arts in Northfield going forward.

ADJOURNMENT

The commission chose not to formally adjourn the meeting.

This was the final meeting of the Arts and Culture Commission. These posted minutes are finalized in draft form and have not been, and will not be, formally approved by the board members.
