Chapter 2, Sec. 2-433. Powers and duties.

In addition to any other authority granted to the heritage preservation commission by charter, ordinance, or state law, the heritage preservation commission shall have the following powers and duties related to chapter 34 of this Code:

- (1) To review and make decisions on certificates of appropriateness as provided for in chapter 34, section 8.5.8 of this Code;
- (2) Following designation of a heritage preservation commission site by city council, the heritage preservation commission shall act as a resource and in an advisory capacity to the owner of the property regarding preservation, restoration, and rehabilitation activities. Heritage preservation commission activity in this regard shall include participation in the planning and implementation of activities within the downtown historic district and other sites that have been designated as heritage preservation sites.
- (3) The heritage preservation commission shall work for the continuing education of the citizens of the city with respect to the city's civic and architectural heritage. This continuing education may include public meetings or publications. It shall keep current and public a register of designated heritage preservation sites along with the plans and programs that pertain to them.
- (4) The heritage preservation commission may recommend to the city the acceptance of gifts and contributions to be made to the city and to assist the city staff in the preparation of applications for grant funds to be made through the city for the purpose of heritage preservation. Any contributions or gifts will be expended in the manner provided through the city's fiscal policy.
- (5) The heritage preservation commission shall establish and monitor an archive policy that would encourage the collection of all city planning and development records, documents, studies, models, maps, plans and drawings. This may be entered into the public library historical archives as a permanent record of city history and development.
- (6) At the discretion of the heritage preservation commission, public hearings may be initiated to solicit public input regarding proposed activities on a heritage preservation site.
- (7) To recommend to the city council heritage preservation site designation as provided for in chapter 34, section 8.5.7 of this Code.
