Poet Laureate's Report

In addition to his written report, Hardy alerted the Commission to the survey he is preparing to distribute to the community. The goal is to gain insight into what aspects of the program will be most important to continue, as he begins to plan for the end of his term. There was some discussion of the terms of his appointment, and there was general agreement that he has set the bar very high for future poets in this position.

Arts & Culture Recognitions

Flom: Our Town just completed a very successful run at the High School. Youth member Bechtel performed in it and reported that it was a very rewarding experience.

Lawrenz: Thank you to Hauck, Katherine Norrie, and Chris Holmquist for putting together another successful Portfolio Day at the High School.

Hauck: Portfolio Day was exciting for students. It's a unique opportunity for students to meet with working artists. Thank you to the eleven artists who participated.

Flom: Looking forward to the sculpture dedication ceremony on Friday, Nov. 16th. Wants to recognize the work and commitment of Alice and Bruce Thomas.

Lawrenz: Ole Artisan's Bizarre will be opening soon at St. Olaf in Buntrock Commons.

Bechtel: Northfield Dance Academy is performing Young Person's Guide to the Orchestra on Dec. 1st at 1pm at the Weitz Center.

Beimers: High School Jazz Band will perform a concert on Nov. 30th. Beimers and Swenson will be performing.

Herzog Melby: Attended Bring the Sing at St. Olaf on Nov. 9th and it was “really amazing.” The theme is using music to support social justice. It is a traveling show that will be performed around the state.
Lawrenz: This year’s Winter Walk, on Dec. 6th, will include a lot of art.

Arts Advocacy in the City
