

Recreation Programming Report – August 2017
Submitted by: Melissa Bernhard

Summer Programming

- Swim lessons concluded at Old Memorial Pool on Thursday, August 10th. Overall participation is up by thirty-five registrations. A collaboration with the Ventures program helped to increase that number. Last summer there were a total of 274 participants, and this year there were 309.
- Middle school and youth football camps concluded at the end of July. Numbers were up by about twenty this year.
- British soccer camps with Challenger Sports took place the first week in August.
- Fencing with the Youth Enrichment League took place the first week in August.
- Youth lacrosse for boys and girls is currently in session.
- Walk! Bike! Fun! will take place on August 12 & 13
- Firearm Safety will be held August 21 – 30
- Adult Softball is finishing up their seasons with tournaments this month.
- A full report of summer programming will be given at the September PRAB meeting.

Promise FAIRS – (formerly known as the Community Youth Fairs)

The Promise FAIRS were held on Tuesday, August 8th from 6 – 8 pm at Greenvale Park Elementary. It was a success as roughly one-hundred families attended the August FAIRS. Many took advantage of the opportunities for physicals and middle school and high school fall sports registration. The next Promise FAIRS will be held on Tuesday, October 24th at Greenvale Park Elementary from 6 – 8 pm.

Fall Classes/Brochure - The Community Services fall brochure has been distributed and is now accepting applications for all programs.

Men's Fall Softball & Co-Rec Kittenball – The deadline to register a team in a league is Friday, August 11. Softball will be played on Tuesday evenings at Babcock and Sechler parks and kittenball will be played at Babcock Park on Wednesday evenings.
