Park Name

Why This Name

Meadows Park	That's its name
Bauer Park	Because it is fun to say and it's my last name
Pocket Park	it's in a cute little pocket of the town
Rainbow Park	I hope it will be full of rainbows.
Freeman	Named after Daniel Freeman "Mr. Northfield"
JFK Foundation Park	2 honor John F. Kennedy our former president who died
Peace Park	Because we should honor our desire for peace
Peace Park	Because I want it to be peaceful
Jesse James
Pioneer Park	We are running out of space for planting memorial trees for people like Danny Freeman, Maggie Lee and other recent and not so recent pioneers of Northfield.
Vista View Park	Because from the top of the hill it has a very nice view.
Wahpekute	The Native Americans who inhabited the big woods, roughly translated to "leaf shooters".
Daniel Freeman Park	He was called 'Mr. Northfield' for all his contributions to this city.
Nature Park	Wonderland, Mother Nture, Hidden Valley, Hidden Woods
Northfield Park	Because it is the name of the city.
Broad Meadows Park	Because it is mostly meadows, botanically, and it is a large open vista overall.
Piesinger Park Named for Marie Piesinger who established a drug store in Northfield in 1925. She would become the first woman in the US to be President of a state board of Pharmacy. She was President of the Commerce Club, the Merchants Association. She was the head of the Association doing work in the field of town beautification. President of the United Fund and the local Red Cross Chapter. Worked for acquisition of a new city park and the origianl municple swimming pool. She was President of the Northfield Garden Club and helped establish flower beds on Bridge Square. In addition to serving several terms on the City Council, she also served the Planning Commissin, Charter Commision and Hospital Board. As a member of the Hospital Board she helped plan the new addtition and personally furnished a room. She also helped in the planning and operating of the new convalescent wing. (Dilley Unit)
East Community Park	Because it's on the eastside of town.

Janesview Sanctuary Park

Janesview Sanctuary Fark Jane McWlliams is an insperational local who has worked tirelessly and annonymously to enhance the Northfield area with her passion for the outdoors. She has been involved in may local efforts and doggedly worked on the skate board park and has volunteered for many years at River Bend Nature Center as a naturalist instilling her passion for nature in thousands (I'm not exaggerating!) of local children. She deserves this recognition in honor of the tireless volunteer work she has done over many years. Northfield is a better place for having Jane McWilliams live here.
Meadows Park	I like the name it has already
Meadows Park	consistent with the area and development
Diversity Park	Definition of diversity the inclusion of individuals representing more than one national origin, Diversity Faik	color, religion, socioeconomic stratum, sexual orientation, etc. Northfield is made up of many different ethnic cultures, sexual orientations, religion & race, that this name just seemed to fit.
	Uniting together as one great town by showing acceptance and understanding of others. We all make Northfield Great!
Harbor Corner	The surrounding street is Harbor Dr and it's on the corner of that street but also the corner of the city limits.
Townsend Park	Location at the end of the town.
Lakota Butte	Named for the butte just south of the park.
Lakota Butte	Named for the butte just south of the park and just south of 110th St.
Jessy's Park
Jessy James Park
Wellstone Park	In honor of Paul, a local activist and leader for the people.
Wahpekute Park	In honor of the natives of this land before and during John North's arrival.
Wheaton Park	In honor of Charles Wheaton - the editor of the city's first newspaper, the Rice County Journal, -but also the man who saved Northfield after the Panic of 1857. He is not recognized anywhere in town but the town may have gone bankrupt if he didn't buy out John North's interest before he left for California.
Turtle Pond Park	Camornia.
Turtle Fond Fark	Because there is a pond near it, and sometimes in the ponds surrounding you can see turtles.
Tados Unidos	With everything going on w/deportation of families. This would be a great name to have. Everyone
	United Facla View Dark
Eagle View Park	There is an eagle who lives nearby and is often seen in the field.

Nicholas Gustafson Memorial Park

Nicholas Gustafson is a well known immigrant, killed in the James Bank Raid. Emblemahre of the Northfield Swedish and general immigrant community his name appearing on a park sign would be an honor to the community and a great historical / Northifeld reference.
