

Recreation Programming Report – December 2017
Submitted by: Melissa Bernhard

Northfield Ski & Snowboard Club – Ski & Snowboard Club began on Monday, December 11th. There are 75 middle school and high school students enjoying the slopes at Welch Village on Monday evenings. Participants not wanting to attend each evening may purchase a bus buy-on at the cost of $28/evening + ticket window pass from Welch.

Jingle Jam – Jingle Jam will take place on Thursday, December 14 at the Northfield Community Resource Center from 6 – 7:30 pm. The event is for children and their families and will include pictures with Santa, a cider bar, a cupcake walk, bingo, crafts, letters to Santa and more. Cost is $5/child or $10 for the whole family. Proceeds go toward Community Services scholarships.

Sports Unlimited Basketball Camp – This camp will take place at Bridgewater Elementary on December 27 & 28th and is for ages 6 – 12 from 10 am – 1 pm. Cost is $44.

Snowmobile Safety Class – The Waterford Warriors Snowmobile Club is offering a snowmobile safety course, running Jan. 8 & 13 for those ages 12 – 18. The classroom portion will take place at Bridgewater Elementary on Jan. 8 from 6:30 – 9:30 pm and the behind the handlebars will take place on the 13th, details TBA. Cost is $19.

Winter/Spring Brochure – The Community Services winter/spring brochure is out and registration is open! There are a number of new classes from which to choose. Go to www.northfieldschools.org and follow the Community Services link for information on what is being offered! With regards to recreation, new classes include the following.

- A number of equine/horsemanship classes for youth, adults and families
- Family Zone Fun & Fitness
- Indoor Flag Football
- Raider Yoga
- Olympic Weightlifting Club
- Youth Broomball & Adult Broomball League
- Girls on the Run
- T'ai Chi for Youth
- Ice Climbing
- Golden Lynx Women's Basketball Open Gym
- CPR/AED/ First Aid Classes