About Us

The National Park Service – Rivers, Trails, and Conservation Assistance program (RTCA) supports community-led natural resource conservation and outdoor recreation projects across the nation. Our network of conservation and recreation planning professionals can partner with community groups, nonprofit organizations, tribes, and government agencies to realize your conservation and outdoor recreation vision by providing a range of services. National Park Service (NPS) staff can share their expertise to help your team turn an idea into reality. We offer this assistance on an annual basis with extensions based on mutual agreement. No monetary grants are made.

Our projects typically fall within four focus areas, although we consider other projects that fall outside of these categories:

- Build healthy communities through parks, trails, and outdoor opportunities
  - Conserve natural lands, rivers, and watersheds
  - Engage youth in outdoor recreation and stewardship
  - Strengthen the organizational capacity of project partners
- .....
