

Highlights from CVB April 16, 2019 Meeting

- Lisa has hired Rachael Trnka to take on a variety of tasks for both the Chamber and the CVB, so that Lisa and Jane can focus on new responsibilities.
- The Home & Garden show this year was very successful. There were more vendors and twice as many people attended as in 2017.
- April looking good for hotel bookings.
- CVB is collecting nominations for its annual tourism awards (it's past the deadline, but I bet Lisa would still accept more!)
- The "Gravel Ride" is happening on May 18th Could be 2,000 bike riders plus their families in town that day.
