The employee must accrue and use accrued sick leave for any safety leave and absence related to illness or injury of self and/or family member. Family member is defined as a child (under 18 years of age, or under age 20 and still attending secondary school), adult child, spouse, domestic partner, sibling, parent, mother-in-law, father-in-law, grandchild, grandparent or stepparent. In making such a determination, the City Administrator will consider the prospective employee's qualifications, education, prior experience, and length of service in the same or similar jobs.

Probationary Employee Employees with serious medical conditions within their first year of employment (not eligible for FMLA or parental leave), may be granted an unpaid leave at the sole discretion of the City Administrator. The employee is required to furnish appropriate medical certification to Human Resources for consideration of the leave.

Probation is extended by the length of leave. Health insurance benefits may be continued if paid by the employee.

Reporting The employee must report his or her need for sick leave to the supervisor/manager as soon as possible but prior to the employee's scheduled shift. The employee must keep the supervisor/manager informed daily of the employee's condition and expected return to work.

The employee must complete a "Leave/Absence" form (see section 11) upon return to work. Failure to complete the form will result in the employee not receiving sick leave pay and time taken will be charged to vacation leave.

After three days of sick leave, the employee may be required to submit a medical certification for the absence.
