City Council Meeting Date: October 1, 2019

To: Mayor and City Council
City Administrator

From: Deb Little, City Clerk

Consider Resolution Proclaiming November 3, 2019 as Ruth's House of Hope Day in Northfield.

Action Requested:

The Northfield City Council considers approving the attached Resolution proclaiming November 3, 2019 as Ruth's House of Hope Day in Northfield.

Summary Report:

Ruth's House of Hope has requested the Northfield City Council proclaim November 3, 2019 as Ruth's House of Hope Day in Northfield. Suzanne Fox, Outreach Coordinator for Ruth's House of Hope, will provide a brief verbal presentation under the Presentations portion of the agenda. Ruth's House of Hope is hosting a benefit concert featuring acclaimed a capella group, Tonic Sol-Fa, on November 3, 2019. Additional details can be found on their website: <https://ruthshousemn.org/>

Ruth's House opened in 2004 in response to an unmet need for safe shelter for homeless women and children in Rice County. Ruth's House of Hope opened a Northfield site office in 2017 to better serve residents of the Northfield community. Ruth's House of Hope provides over 7,000 nights of safe housing to over 120 women and children each year in its emergency/transition shelter and permanent supportive housing units. The community benefits from Ruth's House of Hope support to women and children fleeing domestic violence, experiencing homelessness, struggling with poverty, and facing chemical dependency by providing compassionate care and treating all women and children with dignity and respect.
