City Website Presentation

Action Requested:

The Northfield City Council receive a presentation and provide feedback on our recently updated city website.

Summary Report:

Communications and Human Resources Director Mahowald will give a short presentation about the features and functionality our recently updated City website.

Dedicated City staff from all departments are involved with this project. Kick off of this project started with the Council discussion followed by a community survey in July 2016. The updated website went live on March 27, 2017.

This project is a work in progress. Our City website team will continue to update and improve website performance. As enhancements become available, the website will change.
