Update on Storm Damage to City Trees

Action Requested:

The Northfield Environmental Quality Commission receives an update on storm damage to city trees.

Summary Report:

On September 20, 2018, the City of Northfield had a major storm come through town including tornados. The storm caused major tree damage throughout the City and the EQC is to receive an update on the damage to trees.

The City lost 103 boulevard trees and 25 park trees, along with several hanging branches that needed to be removed.
