From: Ben Martig, City Administrator

Consider Approval of Extension of and Fourth Amendment to Northfield Community Resource Center Management Services (NCRC) Agreement.

Action Requested:

The Northfield City Council considers a Motion approving the Extension of and Fourth Amendment to Northfield Community Resource Center Management Services (NCRC) Agreement.

Summary Report:

Attached is the current NCRC Agreement between the City of Northfield and the NCRC Corporation members. The existing agreement has been extended the last three years (2017, 2018, and 2019) and is scheduled to expire at the end of the year.

FiftyNorth presented to Council on November 19 regarding Phase II of their facility planning and needs study. That work will carry out through 2020. In addition, the School District will be vacating portions of the NCRC building in August of 2020 when Community Education and Recreation relocate. With all of these changes, staff is recommending an extension with NCRC Corporation for management services of the building.

Alternative Options:

None recommended.

Financial Impacts:

No changes from the current contract.

Tentative Timelines:

Not applicable.
