Recognition of Service to the Northfield Economic Development Authority - Andrew Ehrmann & Rachel Leatham

Action Requested:

The EDA Board shall make a motion to adjourn the meeting early in order to recognize Member Andrew Ehrmann's and Member Rachel Leatham's years of service to the EDA. Staff will provide refreshments and treats.

Summary Report:

Member Ehrmann has served on the EDA since 2017. He has been a champion of many economic development priorities especially pertaining to the EDA's socio-economic initiatives. During his time on the EDA, Member Ehrmann has served in Board leadership roles, volunteered to be on the loan review committee, and served as the committee leader of the Socio-Economic Committee.

Member Ehrmann's insight and experience has been appreciated, and we thank him for his service.

Member Leatham has served on the EDA since 2018. She has been an economic development steward throughout several city-led initiatives. During her time on the EDA, Member Leatham has served in Board leadership roles, volunteered to be on the loan review committee, served on the City's Riverfront Enhancement committee, and she participated in the 5th & Water redevelopment developer recruitment.

Member Leatham has been a valued team member of the EDA and the City, and we thank her for her service.
